

The Friends of the University Library Special Collections Endowment

The Friends of the University Library has established The Friends of the University Library Special Collections Endowment Fund to support the programs and operations of the C. L. Sonnichsen Special Collections Department at the University of Texas at El Paso (UTEP) Library, in accordance with the Board of Regents' Rules and Regulations. The Special Collections Department is located on the sixth floor. The book collections include the following Collections: Chicano, Judaic, S. L. A. Marshall Military History, Southwest and Border Studies, and other fine collections of art and rare books. Our Special Collections also has printed sources, manuscript and archival collections available; including an oral history collection documenting the region. For more information about this truly special department, please call (915) 747-5697.

Gifts in honor, memory or other can be done by phone or U.S. Post to:
