Biography or Historical Sketch

Created in 1972, the Chicano/a Pre-Law Society (ChPLS) helps UTEP students pursue their goals of attending law school and achieving a career in the legal field. Activities include resume workshops, general meetings, and meeting with legal professionals. Core values taught include:

1) Loyalty and responsibility to community of El Paso, southwest, and the surrounding Border area.
2) A responsibility to injustice by using their voice for others who cannot defend themselves.
3) A legacy that they should be proud of their heritage, diversity, and history.
